

KATAYOON KHOJASTEH

UI/UX DESIGNER

ABOUT ME

It has been a while that I have got interested in UI/UX design field and because I studied law and humanities I believe that I have more logical insight into UX processes and recognizing user's needs. My goal is to find the best strategy in order to with the lowest cost and shortest time meet the user's desires and solve their problems. Besides having a creative mind, I have a patient, flexible and intellectual personality who consider it as an honor to be in your team, help to achieve your goals and be the best.
